Getting to Know Your Character: Comment on what you learned today in the appropriate space:

We learn about characters through what they say (dialogue) – or through what others say about them. What did you learn about your character from the dialogue?

---

We learn about characters through what they think (internal dialogue). What did you learn from your character's internal dialogue?

---

---

We learn about characters through what they do (actions). What did you learn by analyzing your character's actions?

---

---

We learn about the characters through the author's description (physical appearance). What did you learn from the author's description?

---

---

We learn about the characters through the author's exposition (the story before the story). What did you learn from the exposition?
