

Directions to Unblock Adobe Flash

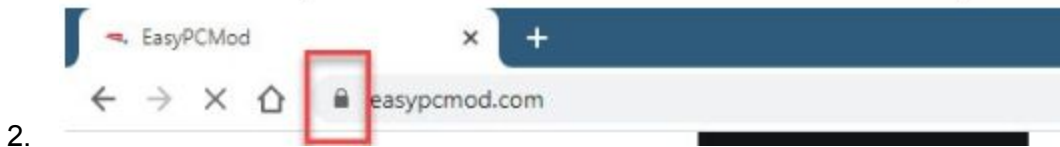

Open the website you want to allow Flash.

Type the website address on the address bar on top.

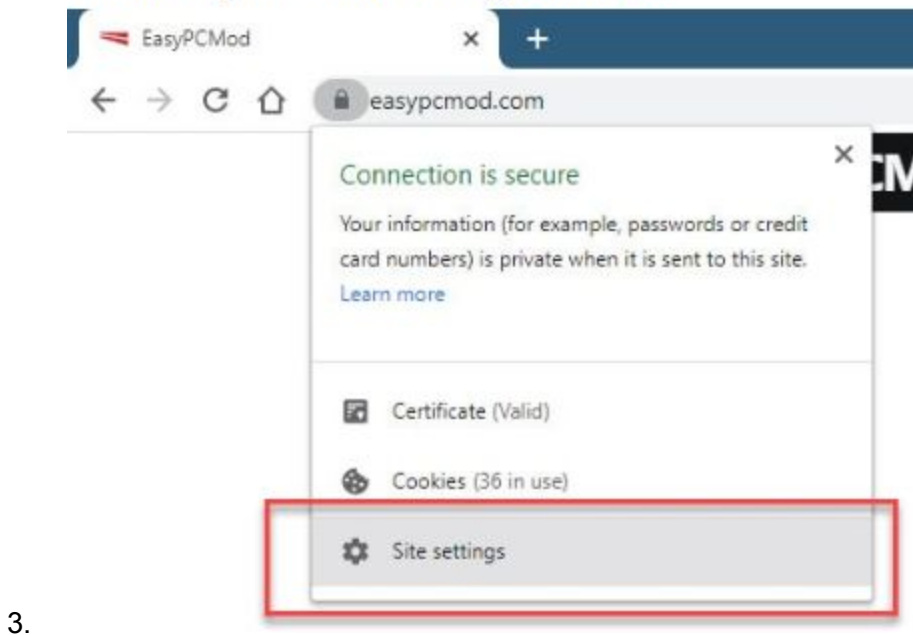

Click on the lock icon.

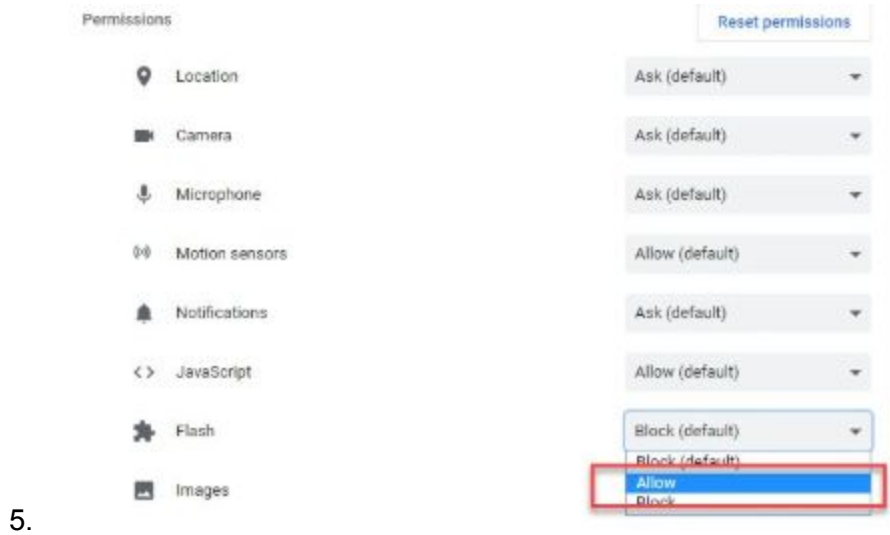

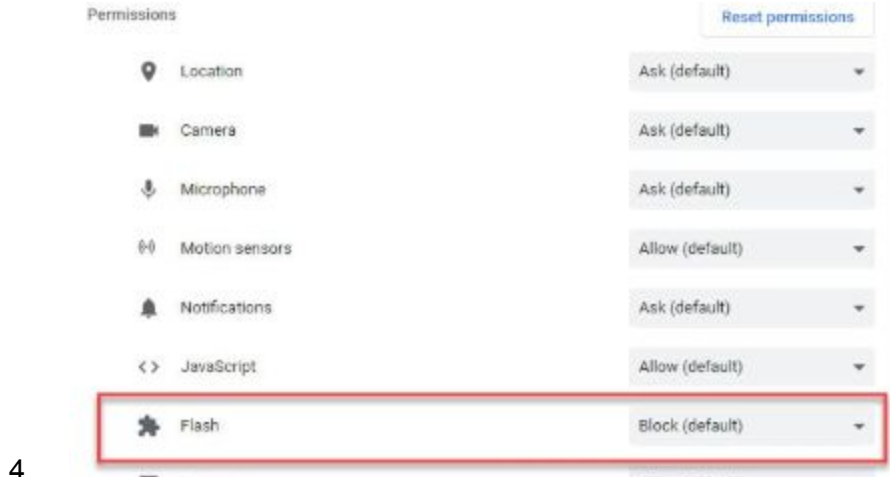

This is located just before the website address on the top left.

Click on Site Settings.

This will open a new settings window.

6. After performing the steps listed above you will enable Adobe Flash Player on Google Chrome.