

What is your weather event?

Describe the weather event? What causes the weather event? Include information about air movement (wind) and water.

Where in the world does the weather event happen?

Why is the weather event dangerous? What problems does it cause?

How can people prepare and be safe?

What are some other interesting facts you learned?