

The James Journal

October 2015

October Language Journal

Each child has their own speech and language journal. Each month we will add a personal experience or targeted theme. This month's journal will focus on favorite fall activities. While similar to newsbook, the idea of this journal is to maintain a running language sample your child will keep at the end of the year.

HOMEWORK: Please send in (print or e-mail) 1 picture of an activity your child likes to do in the fall. A picture of your child doing the activity is best. For example: Does your family go apple picking, hayride, rake leaves at home, drink hot chocolate, attend any fall festivals, dress up for Halloween?

Please send in by Monday October 26th

Folders: Keep up the great work with your child's speech and language folders. I encourage you to write me notes in the communication section. Do you like the activities? How is your child doing with them? What would you like to see more of?
