

Character Comments: Did you wish that you could jump into the book and talk to a character? What would you have said? In the space below, pretend you are face-to-face with the character!

---

---

---

Decisions, Decisions: Characters are always faced with tough choices. Usually, their decisions reflect what we already know about them (The antagonist will usually make a bad decision). However, sometimes they surprise us. In the space below, discuss a decision that your character had to make. Was the choice what you expected, or were you surprised?

---

---

---

Theory: A theory is a “big idea” that you have about your character. For example, you might say that your character is misunderstood. Other character traits include: mean, kind, shy, lonely, outspoken, bitter, hard to get along with, easygoing, adventurous, fearless, impulsive, intelligent, cowardly and moody. In the space below, choose a character trait and support it with 2 examples from the text:

---

---

---

---

---