Video Discussion

What You'll Need:
- Video
- Student Handout
- Student Handout (Spanish)

Activity Steps

1. Introduce the video topic to students by saying: Today we are going to watch a video exploring how to be positive and have fun while playing online games, and how you can help others do the same.

2. Show the Keeping Games Fun and Friendly video (2:15 minutes). (Note: The video is also available in Spanish, and you can also use the video player to turn on subtitles.)

3. Lead a class discussion exploring the questions below.

Distance learning option: Have students watch the video and complete the handout. If there’s time, have students share their responses during a video meeting.

Discussion Questions

1. Which social interactions do you notice in the video?
   - Sample responses:
     - Téa and Sabrina were working together to move on to the next stage of the game.
     - Cody was being a griefer and preventing Téa and Sabrina from getting to the castle. Griefing is angering people in a video game by being mean or destructive or by cheating.
     - The knight, an unknown user, sent Téa and Sabrina a message request. They decided it was not safe to team up with the knight because he had asked them for private information.

2. Who talks to whom? What do they say?
   - Sample responses:
     - Téa and Sabrina talk to each other to share ideas on what they should do in the game.
     - Cody talks to Téa and Sabrina. He is mean to them and won’t let them pass the bridge unless they give him a made-up password.
     - Téa and Sabrina run into the knight, who sends them a message request. They decide to ignore it because it is not safe to talk to someone they don’t know.

3. Overall, do you think the interactions in the video were mostly fun and positive or mostly negative? Why?
   - Answers will vary.

4. What norms do you think you should follow when playing online video games?
   - Sample responses:
     - Answers will vary. Some effective rules could include: not griefing or using mean language or curse words; being kind to other players; and not sharing private information.
